

Quiz On Corona Virus Challenge

Event Date : 28/04/2020

The Department of Physics & Electronics has organized an online Quiz on Corona virus Challenge on 28.04.2020. It was carried out in two stages. Preliminary stage and Final Stage. Almost 60 students have been participated in this Quiz from all over the District. Cash prize also been announced for the top 3 Students.

At the beginning of the Program, Principal Dr.C.Krishna addressed the students. He iterated that, this kind of programs will develop the internal skills and spontaneous response among the students.

The Convener of the program Dr. K. Jyothi said that the aim of this program is to inculcate awareness of pandemic among the students and the program is apt for prevailing situation.

After completion of two stages of Quiz competition, the convener has announced the names of the winners. The prize amount with certificates were disbursed through online. Also the certificates were distributed to all the participated students.