

National Science Day Celebrations

Date: 28/02/2025

The department of Physics and Electronics has celebrated national science day on 28th February 2025. The program started with garlanding sir CV Raman statue near the Physics department. Dr. B. V. Tirupanyam, principal of the college has presided over the program.

P. Appanna, Retd chief Engineer, APSRTC, Vijayawada, acted as a resource person. In his speech he spoke regarding the importance of science and its application in day to day life. He also encouraged students to opt their careers in the field of science and technology which would be beneficial for their individual growth as well as the country's growth.

As a part of science Day celebrations the department of Physics and electronics organised several activities which are listed below.

1. Open campus for all the school students.

Under reactivity open campus, Dr. M. Surekha, head of the department of Physics and electronics had explained some of the physics practicals to the school students.

2. Quiz competition for all I, II, III year physics students of PR college.

3. Lecture by Dr. B. V. Tirupanyam principal of the college.

Staff and students of the department have taken part in celebrations.

Garlanding sir CV Raman statue

Resource person interacting with the students

Staff felicitating the resource person

Open Campus for school students

Quiz competition

Lecture by Dr.B.V.Tirupanyam