

Best Practice- Clean and Green Program

Students were involved in clean and green program weekly one hour. They were made to maintain cleanliness in the labs, class room and department surroundings. This practice makes the student to feel the responsibility of the surroundings/ environment in which we are living. Students actively participate in the program and it is mostly organized in the afternoon sessions of Saturday.

