PROGRAMME REPORT

The Department of Political Science organised a Guest lecture on the topic “Local Self-Government in India”. The session was delivered by Dr. GOPI MADABOYINA Sir, a distinguished academician and expert in the field of political science and governance. The lecture aimed to enhance students’ understanding of the significance, structure, and challenges of local self-governing institutions in India.

Objectives:

- Educate students on 73rd, 74th constitutional amendment acts
- Raise awareness on functioning of local self government
- Highlight the importance for social democracy

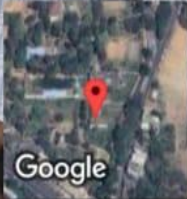

Key Highlights of the Lecture :

Introduction to Local Self-Government

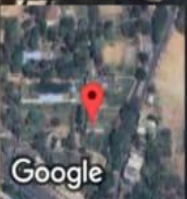

Gopi Sir began by explaining the concept of local self-government, describing it as a system that empowers people at the grassroots level to participate in decision-making and administration of their own communities.
