Brief report of the activity

Mr. Sagar briefly explain about some tips for developing career awareness:

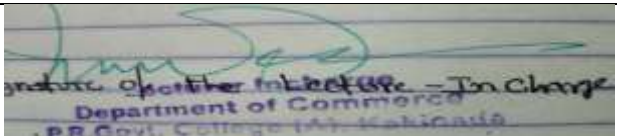

Take career assessments. There are many online and offline career assessments that can help you to identify your interests, skills, and values.

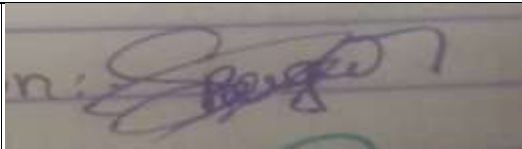

Talk to people who work in different careers. Ask them about their jobs, what they like and dislike about their work, and what advice they would give to someone who is interested in a similar career.

Shadow someone who works in a career that you are interested in. This will give you a firsthand look at what the job is like.

Attend career fairs. Career fairs are a great way to meet with employers and learn about different job opportunities.

Volunteer. Volunteering is a great way to gain experience and learn about different careers.
