Brief report of the activity	Resource persons delivered valuable words on National Consumer Day Week Celebration.i.e. National Consumer Day is celebrated in India on December 24 every year to spread awareness about consumer rights and responsibilities. This day commemorates the day when the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 received the assent of the President and came into force. The Consumer Protection Act is a landmark legislation that was enacted to protect the interests of consumers in India. The Act guarantees eight fundamental rights to consumers, including the right to be informed, the right to choose, the right to safety, the right to be heard, the right to redressal, the right to consumer education, the right to consumer protection, and the right to healthy environment. The National Consumer Day Week is celebrated from December 20 to 26 every year. During this week, various events and activities are organized to raise awareness about consumer rights and responsibilities. These events are organized by government agencies, consumer organizations, and educational institutions.
