Brief report of the activity	The Department of Commerce and Management Studies hosted a guest lecture on the Company Secretary (CS) Course, delivered by K S V P S Kameswara Rao, an esteemed professional. The event aimed to guide students on career prospects in corporate governance and compliance. Rao elaborated on the CS course structure, covering the CSEET, Executive, and Professional levels, emphasizing eligibility, syllabus, and exam patterns. He highlighted the role of a Company Secretary in ensuring legal and regulatory compliance, strategic decision-making, and corporate management. The lecture underscored the course's relevance for commerce students, offering insights into lucrative career paths in secretarial, legal, and financial sectors. Interactive discussions clarified the skills required, such as analytical thinking and communication, and the potential for high-earning roles in corporate firms. The session inspired students to pursue the CS qualification, aligning with industry demands. The event concluded with a Q&A, addressing queries on preparation strategies and career opportunities, leaving students motivated and well-informed.
